

Recent Case: Identity Takeover

Airport Security Supervisor Uses Dead Man's ID for 20 Years

A Nigerian, Bimbo Olumuyiwa Oyewole, was arrested at his home in New Jersey on a charge of impersonating someone else to hide his illegal immigrant status.

He worked at Newark's Liberty International Airport for 20 years and passed background checks, even by the New Jersey State Police. He used the name Jerry Thomas since 1992, the year Thomas was killed in New York City.

Preventable? Yes - CBSV would've shown the SSN of a deceased person

Don't Accept a New Applicant Until You Know It's The Right Person!
Use CBSV First!
